I, Sandra Slatter, will to Betty Virostko the Senior of 59-60, my Love to Bob Wilson, hoping he wants it and my Spanish book to Senora Gallemore, knowing she will find someone to use it.

I, Lyle Gurney, will my job as Annual Editor to Deanne Fear and my habit of not studying to anyone who can pass without it. I will my position as first chair Clarinet to Nancy Budd, knowing she will practice more than I did.

I, Violet Milburn, will my ability to get along with the Bus Driver to Judy Albee and my ability to get out of class to anyone smart enough to try it, and my width to Jim Ashford.

I, Allen Bradley, will my ability in English to anyone that can understand it. I will my Senior year to Deanne Fear, hoping she will be as happy to get out as I am.

I, Loretta Dibler, will my helpless student directing to Mary Budd, my stubby finger to Jackie McWilliams, hoping she knows more about the paper cutter than I did. I will my jokes to Mr. Gallemore and my will to Larry Slatter.

I, Suzanne Kimberlin, will my height to Wilma DeGraw, and my Trig. problems to anyone who thinks they can conquer the impossible.

I, Ted Roberts, will my ability to get into trouble to anyone who wants it. I also will my height, which was willed to me to anyone who needs it.

I, Richard Kundert, will my days of trouble to Jack Clark, and my paper planes to Kenney Near, my boring days of school to the better behaved students.

I, Bessie Kothe, will my ability to arrive late to Typing class to anyone who can't get there on time. I will my slowness to Judy Albee and My Bar Baritone to anyone who likes such a boring subject.

I, Boyd Whitman, will my job of F. F. A. president to my brother Ward, and my love for English to anyone who likes such a boring subject.

I, Coleen Chivers, will my ability to get myself into jams, to anyone who is as capable as I am. I also will my 19 year old Uncle to Jean Stepp.

I, Edith Lomax, will my scholastic ability to Coleen Chivers, hoping she will use it in the future and my ability to Jean Stepp and my voice to Winnie Milburn.

I, Jean Stepp, will my bedroom eyes to any girl that really needs and wants them; my ability to get unexcused absences to anyone that wants to take a vacation during school and my good grades to the Seniors of '60.

I, Cyril Housley, will all my study halls to anyone who can use them. I will my F. F. A. Secretary job to anyone who is crazy enough to want it.

I, Alva Clow, will my ability to give the teachers, girls, and fellow classmen a bad time to Bobby Wilson. My ability of driving Mr. Keeneys jeep to Mike Murdock since he is just about the wildest driver in town. My ability of letting my friends do my Physics assignments to who ever has good friends like me.

I, Kenny Kondziela, will my ability not to give speeches in English to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Howard Masoner, will anything and everything to anyone and everyone.

Class Prophecy

As we board our flying Carpet, we happen to see Captain Loretta Dibler, training her pupils to be carpet flyers. Dr. Alva Clow is working on a new Scientific device, to make the ride more smooth.

After the captain gets the carpet in gear and we are on our way once more. Approaching Mt. Everest we see Suzanne Kimberlin climbing to the top where she is planning to build a resort. For entertainment at the resort, she plans to have Edith Lomax sing songs from the Opera Carmen, and accompanied by the World's Greatest Clarinetist, Lyle Gurney. After a short visit we traveled on.

Our next stop was the Cow Palace where we see the Nations Top Cowboy, Ted Roberts. Howard Masoner is there taking pictures for the New York Daily Times. From Howard we find out that Sandra Slatter is Editor of the Society Column and that Jean Stepp is the Advertising Manager. Both girls plan to retire early and attend Cambridge University. At the University they plan to take in lectures from the Worlds' leading professor, Cyril Housley, also teaching girls P. E. at Cambridge is Violet Milburn.

Flying over Oklahoma we see an enormous field of Oil Wells owned by Richard Kundert, the Multi-Millionaire. Next to the Oil Wells we see Thousands of Pure-bred Herefords which we understand belong to Allen Bradley and the well noted Herdsman Boyd Whitman.

In Coleen Chivers Cafe, we find her serving the best steak in the house to Kenny Kondzela, the very well known Public speaker.

As we take the long way home, stopping at Washington D. C., we find President Bessie Kothe signing a new bill, making May 21, a legal holiday for the class of '59.

It has been a great pleasure to have worked with the Big Piney Student Body of 1958-59. Your ability to accept the challenge of meeting more rigid scholastic standards, your cooperation in helping to improve your school, and your insight in selling your school via public relations is to be highly commended. Keep in mind the words of John Dryden and your life and school will be a success, "They can conquer who believe they can."

Thank you,

Clinton Dunning

Superintendent of Schools

Congratulations to the graduating class of 1959. Now you will have the choice of either continuing your education or selecting an occupation. I sincerely hope that you will continue your education, because at no other time in our history has education played such an important part in our lives. All of the great movements for freedom have been inspired by the philosophies of learned men. Truly education and freedom go hand and hand.

Good Luck,

George T. Kurkowski
